

The Majesty

Verse

1. Be - hold the won - ders of this world that
 2. The mys - ter - ies of par - ti - cles, of
 3. While mys - ter - ies be - low, a - bove, can 4. The maj - es - ty and awe that live in take our breath a - way - the snow-capped peaks by light un - furled with light and en - er - gy, which now ap - pear il - lo - gi - cal, com - point to pow'r di - vine, they can - not speak of God's great love or each cre - a - ted thing are on - ly but de - riv - a - tive of ev - 'ry dawn - ing day. What strange, in - spir - ing fos - sils lie deep mand hu - mil - i - ty. Be - fore the vast, un - known ex - panse of mer - ci - ful de - signs. The Scrip - tures give us cer - tain - ty of Christ, their Mak - er - King. On all who trust in God the Word this in our an - cient land that point to wis - dom, pow'r, and time be - stars and gal - a - xies, we ques - tion our sig - ni - fi - cance and God's re - deem - ing plan - that, clothed in frail hu - man - i - ty, He priv - i - lege is placed - to climb the mount - ain of the Lord and yond the reach of man. Oh, the ma - - - jes - if our Ma - ker sees. ran - somed fal - len man.

 mar - vel at His grace.

Chorus

ty, Lord, Your ma - - - jes - ty! With the things of the earth we will sing of Your worth, of Your ma - - - jes - ty.

Words & Music by David L. Ward

© 2012 ReformedPraise.org, administered by Reformed Praise See the Reformed Praise copyright agreement for usage information