- 1 For the redeeming agony
You suffered there on Calvary,
For blood You shed and tears You cried,
I love You, Christ, my crucified!
- 2 O for Your bruised and bludgeoned frame
That bore my every sin and shame,
Which You for me did take and die,
I love You, Christ, my crucified!
- 3 Yes, for the faithful love You showed,
Which with abundant grace once flowed
Out of Your opened hands and side,
I love You, Christ, my crucified!
- 4 That You, my King, would suffer scorn
Beneath a crown of twisted thorn,
Then in this rebelâ€™s grave go lie,
I love You, Christ, my crucified!
- 5 And hearing how You left the grave
Alive and ever strong to save,
And then ascended as the sun,
I love You, Christ, my risen one!
- 6 O when I see you, risen King,
Iâ€™ll do none else but fall to sing
And with my all let this strain rise:
I love You, Christ, my glorified!
