1 Verse 1:
Though I was born an orphan,
Abandoned and alone,
Enslaved and bound in darkness,
Without a hope or home,
The God of grace and mercy
From his eternal throne
Ordained to be my Father
And claim me as His own.

2 Verse 2:
That I might be adopted
The Father sent his Son
To live in full obedience
And die for what I've done.
Now through his resurrection,
Through faith, with him I'm one.
A member of his household,
I am an heir, a son.

3 Verse 3:
To soothe my fear and worry
The Spirit from on high
Was sent to be a witness
That "Father!" I might cry.
O How I love this Father!
I'm never left alone.
He's come to dwell within me
Until he calls me home.

4 Verse 4:

Since I have this adoption,
I cannot close my home
To widows and to orphans,
Abandoned and alone.
Lord, fill me with compassion
To love the fatherless,
That I might show the nations
How great my Father is!
