1 Verse 1:
The Lord has seen us, our thoughts and ways,
No deed is hidden from His gaze.
Our God is jealous for we have profaned
His prized possession - His own name.
Though His name has been disgraced
All our sins have been erased;
From the grave we have been raised
To new life

C Chorus:
For the sake of His name, for His unrivaled fame,
He has reconciled His people at the cross;
As His anger is spent on the Savior He sent
See Him vindicate the greatness of His name,
His glorious name, His glorious name.

2 Verse 2:
He sent His nameâ€™s sake to bear our shame,
The Son has taken all our blame.
From Christ, His treasure, He turned away
His love and glory to display.
Though His name has been disgraced
All our sins have been erased;
From the grave we have been raised
To new life

B Bridge:
We will lose ourselves in His glory
As we find ourselves in His story.
