

Sinner, Where is Room for Doubt?

Text: David L. Ward, 2012

Tune: Joanie Madden & Brian Keane, 1999

Harmonized: N. Fielding Burns, 2014

1. Sin-ner, where is room for doubt? Has not Je - sus' love been proved?
2. Sin-ner, where is room for guilt? Has not Je - sus borne your shame?
3. Sin-ner, where is room for toil? Has not Je - sus won your rest?
4. Sin-ner, where is room for pride? Has not Je - sus paid it all?

Did He not lay down His life and the Fa - ther's wrath re - move?
Was He not cut off that you might the Fa - ther's hon - or gain?
Did He not o - bey the law, giv - ing us His right - eous - ness?
Did He not show char - i - ty to one ru - ined from the fall?

Hear Him on the cross ex - claim - ing, "It is fin - ished," then He died;
See Him on the cross de - grad - ed, rid - i - culed and thrown a - way,
See Him on the cross ful - fill - ing both your pun - ish - ment and crown;
On the cross He paid your ran - som, ev - 'ry debt has been e - rased;

Lose your doubts and fears for - ev - er at His bleed - ing, lov - ing side.
to re - ceive the once re - ject - ed and His pard'n - ing grace dis - play.
Lose your pow - er - less re - li - gion, find your - self in His re - nown.
You had noth - ing, yet He gave you rich - es by His lav - ish grace.
