A Sweet and Pleasant Providence

Words by Eric Schumacher. Music by Jeff Bourque.
Key: C
© 2013 Manicotti Music/ThousandTongues.org. Administered by Thousand Tongues
Song Flow: 1,2,3
From http://www.thousandtongues.org/songs/modernhymns/a-sweet-and-pleasant-providence
CCLI Song # 7037337

| C | F | C | F |

1

C G C C/E F
Events that seem unfortunate May often line the way
C G C
That God has paved to guide his saints
F G Csus C
To bright and happy days.
Am D/F# F C/E Gsus G
Naomiâ€™s dismal hopelessness Was shown to be untrue.
C G C
Remember this the next time God
F G | C | F | C | F |
deals bitterly with you.

2

C G C
In faith let your heart learn to trust
C/E F
That â€™round the corner lies
C G C
A sweet and pleasant providence
F G Csus C
Designed through sovâ€™reign eyes.
Am D/F#
Like Ruth, take refuge in the Lord
F C/E Gsus G
And rest beneath His wings,
C G C
You do not know what God intends
F G | C | F | C | F |
Nor what his kindness brings.

3

C G C C/E F
The cloud is black before it breaks And dark before it yields
C G C F G Csus C
A flood of kindness over you To bloom your barren field.
Am D/F# F C/E Gsus G
So turn your eyes upon the One That evâ€™ry good flows from
C G C F G C
For in his great redemptive plan The best is yet to come!