- 1 Come, Savior Christ, our only Lord,
You great Interpreter divine,
Explain Your own transmitted Word,
To teach and to inspire is Thine:
You only can Yourself reveal,
Open your book and loose its seal.
- 2 Whatever the ancient prophets spoke
Concerning You, O Christ, make known;
Chief subject of the sacred book,
You did fulfill, and You alone:
Yet there our Lord we cannot see
Unless Your Spirit give the key.
- 3 Now, Jesus, now the veil remove -
The folly of our darkened heart;
Unfold the wonders of Your love,
The knowledge of Yourself impart:
Our ears - our inmost souls we bow,
Speak, Lord, to us Your servants now.
- 4 While now the text divine we read,
With earnest prayer and strong desire,
O may a work in us proceed
Our souls to quicken and inspire;
Our dullness help, our blindness chase,
And guide us by the light of grace.
