CCLI Song # 4295473

- 1 'Twas with an everlasting love that God His own elect embraced,
Before He made the worlds above, or earth in her position
placed.
- C Chorus:
Such love! How high its glories swell, how great,
immutable, and free!
Millions of sins, deserving of hell, were all swallowed up,
no more to be!
- 2 Long before sun's first brilliant ray illumined the darkness
from above,
Saints in His arms of purpose lay, loved with an everlasting love.
- 3 Then, in His wonderful decrees, Christ and His church
appeared as one;
Her sin, by imputation, His, while she in spotless splendor shone.
- 4 Believing, here my comfort stands, salvation undeserved
and free!
Such everlasting love demands an everlasting song from me.
