1 Redeemed from guilt, redeemed from fears,
My soul restored, and gone my tears,
What can I say, or even sing
For gifts in love You daily bring?

C Chorus:
Your Spirit, Lord, to me impart!
Expand, and raise, and fill my heart;
So may my life begin to show
Honor to You for all that I owe.

2 What can I do, so poor, so weak,
But from Your hands new blessings seek?
A heart to feel my mercies more,
A soul to know whom I adore.

3 O! teach me at Your feet to fall
And yield to You my life, my all;
Before Your saints my debt to own,
And live and die to You alone!
