1 Because of one the world was cursed,
In Adam's sin we died,
Yet by the righteousness of Christ
We may be justified.
In Him we have a righteousness
By God Himself approved,
A spotless robe, a shining dress,
Which never is removed.

2 Obedient till His dying breath,
He bled upon the Mount;
The record of His life and death
Is charged to our account.
His death a perfect ransom paid
By free and sov'reign grace;
The law He perfectly obeyed,
Performing in our place.

3 When we appear to our betrothed
We need not fear or hide
For in His righteousness we're clothed
As His own radiant bride.
O grant that we may ever trust
In Jesus' work alone
And in His loving arms find rest
Until we reach our home.
