1 Verse 1:
Sweet the sign that now reminds me,
Of my Saviorâ€™s sacrifice;
Of the ransom freely given,
Bought at such a costly price.
Oh, what pleasure, oh, what pleasure,
To be buried with my Lord!

2 Verse 2:
Standing at this tomb of water,
Emblem of my Saviorâ€™s grave;
Even though I feel unworthy,
Can I run from mercyâ€™s wave?
No! Iâ€™ll enter, No! Iâ€™ll enter;
Jesus entered there to save.

3 Verse 3:
Should it take my worldly pleasures,
Or it bring great shame or loss,
Yet the fragrant, blest reflection:
I have been where Jesus was,
Will revive me, will revive me,
When I faint beneath the cross.

4 Verse 4:
Then when baptized in His glory,
Praise to Jesus, I will sing,
Loudly with the ransomed millions,
Worshiping the King of kings!
All creation, all creation,
Love and worship then will bring!
