

Awake, My Dear Brethren

Text: Unknown / David L. Ward, © 2008 ThousandTongues.org
Tune: PROTECTION (How Firm a Foundation), Joseph Funk (1832)
From <http://www.thousandtongues.org/songs/hymntexts/awake-my-dear-brethren>

Song Flow: 1,2,3,4

- 1 Awake, my dear brethren who trust in the Lord,
Obey your commission to preach from His Word:
Go teach all the nations and baptize each one
Who trusts in the Father and Spirit and Son.
- 2 Be sober, be prudent, be watchful in prayer
And be their examples of piety here
That others, beholding the works that you do
May glorify Jesus in righteousness too.
- 3 Be faithful, dear brethren, and stand for His cause
And preach for His honor, and not for applause;
Watch over your life and stand up for the truth
And suffer as freely as He did for you.
- 4 And when the great day of redemption is here
And Jesus, in splendor, to all men appears
This glorious Redeemer to you will recite:
“Well done, faithful servant, come taste my delights!”™