Your Love Remains

Words by David L. Ward & Horatius Bonar (1808-1889). Music by David Ward.
Song Flow: 1,C,2,C
© 2013 ThousandTongues.org, admin by Thousand Tongues
CCLI Song # 7037361
From http://www.thousandtongues.org/songs/updatedhymns/your-love-remains

1 Verse 1:
I hear the words of love, I gaze upon the blood-
Behold, the suffering He bore!
I see the sacrifice that paid redemption's price
And has made my place secure.
His grace will never end, it has been always planned;
He is the everlasting Lord.
And in my deepest pain His love will never change,
He'll always keep His Word.

C Chorus:
Despite my cold, unfaithful heart
You never change, You are the same,
Your love remains.
You promised never to depart,
You never change, You are the same,
Your love remains.

2 Verse 2:
Though clouds of doubt may rise
And storms may sweep my skies
And waves of sorrow He may bring,
This blood-sealed friendship stays
Because of blood-bought grace
From my kind and faithful King.
My love is often low, my joy still ebbs and flows,
And my devotion isn't full,
But peace with Him remains- His grace will never change
And His word will be fulfilled.