1

Let us go to Bethlehem;
There the King of Glory lies!
He has left his diadem,
And his throne beyond the skies,
He, the Lord of endless years,
Now a feeble babe appears.
Let us go to Bethlehem,
Let us go to worship him.

2

Let us go to Bethlehem;
God descends with men to dwell!
And He comes, not to condemn,
But to save from sin and hell:
Oh, what rich and boundless grace
To our lost and guilty race!
Let us go to Bethlehem,
Let us go to worship him.

3

Let us go to Bethlehem;
Eastern magi worship there.
Let us strive to rival them
With the incense of our prayer;
And our hearts as offerings bring,
To the glorious new-born King.
Let us go to Bethlehem,
Let us go to worship him.
